

51st LBMSDG Meeting. Monday, 8th July 2019

8 July, 2019 @ 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm

51st LBMSDG Meeting. Monday, 8th July 2019

The organisers kindly thank Agilent for sponsoring this meeting at:

The Stevenson Lecture Theatre, The British Museum, Great Russell Street, London, WC1 3DG

12:30 Buffet lunch

13:00 Plenary talk: Dr Andrew Davison, Royal Liverpool and Broadgreen University Hospitals (NHS) Trust, UK

'Harwa the gatekeeper to modern metabolomics'

14:00 Talk 2: Dr Kristine Korzow Richter, Max Planck Institute for the Science of Human History, Jena, Germany

'Palaeoproteomics as a way of understanding the past'

14:30 Talk 3 (student talk): Will Pearson, Imperial College London, UK

'Paying the metabolic cost of the immune response'

15:00 Coffee break

15.30 Talk 4: Dr Tessa Moses, The University of Edinburgh, UK

'The role of GC/Q-TOF in the engineering of high-value small molecules in baker's yeast'

16:00 Talk 5: Dr Boyoung Lee, University of Oxford & The Smithsonian Institutions

'Untangled: resolving ancient mysteries by species identification of silks using protein mass spectrometry'

16:30 End of presentations

18:30 -19:30 Wine reception in the British Museum's Egyptian Sculpture Gallery, Room 4

It will be essential for individuals to register for the meeting using the below Eventbrite link:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/monday-8th-july-2019-london-biological-mass-spectrometry-discussion-group-meeting-tickets-62053392367>

Wine reception registration is required separately to the main meeting

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/monday-8th-july-2019-london-biological-mass-spectrometry-discussion-group-drinks-reception-tickets-62044661252>